The Republicans have been in power four months, and can already claim that they are giving the country a business men's administration.

Our exports last year went beyond the billion dollar mark. Professors of discouragement are compelled to fight shy of the statistics of 1897.

"Everything comes to him who knows how to wait." Secretary Sherman gave no evidence of annoyance over the malicious publications about his mental capabilities, which have been going the rounds since his selection as Secretary of State, but has, in a single blow, with his splendid and forceful letter to Ambassador Hay on the fur-seal question, put an end to the miserable attacks upon him which, of course, have been prompted by hostility to the McKinley administration and its Secretary of State. No more vigorous document had emanated from the State Department in many years and it is a gratification to every American citizen both because of its ringing American tone and also because it disposes of these malicious statements affecting the personality of the chief official of the McKinley administration.

The croakers who complained of Secretary Seward's course because he paid seven millions for Alaska, showed about as little wisdom as the croakers today who have been insisting, that nothing but the free and unlimited coinage of silver would bring back prosperity to the United States. Alaska has already brought to the United States many dollars more than it cost us in its fur-seal industry, and now it has developed the richest gold mine in the world. This enormous gold field within our own territory, coupled with the fact that the gold mines of the world are producing this year more than ever in history and that we are going to draw great quantities of gold from abroad in payment of our splendid crops, for which high prices are predicted, promises a good supply of money and prosperity in the United States during the coming year, and indeed indefinitely.

While the general tone of reports received from all parts of the country indicates a genuine returning of prosperity, some few sections appear to be in as hard times as at any time during the past four years of Democracy. This is the case in some of the poorer farming districts where the farmer makes little more than a living at best, and where now his last year's crops have all been sold long ago, and he is unable to realize on the increase in prices of farm products, and where a large portion of his present and prospective crop must go to pay his Spring's fertilizer bill; also where he does not live near enough manufacturing centres to feel the effect of the increased wage money now being paid to factory laborers. These sections will be the last to feel the wave of prosperity and good times which is surely covering the land, but they will eventually see an improved condition.

The free traders are seeking to evade the fact that the reduction of the tariff duties by the Wilson law caused the reduction in coal miners' wages, by asserting that there was no increase in the importations of coal under the Wilson law and hence it could not have reduced prices. They assume apparently that the public does not understand that the reduction in tariff enabled the low priced Nova Scotia coal to come into competition with that dug by the miners of the United States, and by reason of its low price drove the West Virginia coal out of the eastern markets. This was the fact and no befogging of the situation will prevent anybody understanding that it was the reduction in the price at which Nova Scotia coals were laid down in eastern ports that drove eastern coals out of the East and into the West, producing the war which resulted in the reduction of coal miners' wages.

Fall River has but two of the men with whom it started the season and New Bedford but five. There's nothing of all the men the Maine League had at the time there are now men.

The pessimistic intonances of newspapers and statesmen in Spain on account of the Cuban rebellion show that at last the truth is starting to make itself known in that country. From the beginning of the insurrection the Madrid Government has taken special pains to misrepresent the situation in Cuba, manufacturing or magnifying Spanish military successes, and suppressing all accounts of insurgent victories. Weyler's absurd pretenses that certain districts in the island were "pacified," and that thousands of troops were about to be sent home were published in all the Spanish papers, and probably found ready credence for a time. The fact, however, that the insurgents refused to accept the "reforms" which Spain promised, coupled with the further fact that Spain has been trying to make loans to pay the expense of sending more troops to the island, have opened the eyes of the Spanish people to the real situation. When the masses in Spain learn, as they are beginning to do now, that the chances of subduing the rebellion are hopeless the Madrid Government's difficulties will grow graver than they have hitherto been.

THE ANNUAL PICNIC

Employers and Employees of the Courier-Gazette Spend Pleasant Day at Oakland.

Next to its weekly pay day, the event to which the Courier-Gazette force looks forward to is its annual picnic. The "office picnic" became a fixed institution about 10 years ago and has proved such an enjoyable custom that the idea of giving it up would not be entertained for a moment.

This year it was held Wednesday of the present week and Oakland was the scene of the gathering. Supt. Hawken had kindly provided a special car for the transportation of the employees and the regular patrons of the road started in automobiles when the motorman and conductor did not need their frantic gestures but kept the car and its enthusiastic occupants headed directly for Oakland and bent upon getting there at the earliest possible moment. The picnic was held at the picnic grounds which had been taken over and in due time the picnicers had landed at the pavilion, which, through the kindness of the owners, was placed at their disposal.

The party divided itself into two forces, one of which remained at the pavilion to provide dinner and another which proceeded from divers mysterious places fishing gear enough to supply a whole fleet on the grand banks. The tide was up however and the fishing was not very successful.

John W. Thomas also developed a great capacity for summer-catching, and his friends who only surmised the fact before are now sure that he must be the John Thomas who caught so many fish last Sunday. The picnicers did not have much success in the fishing line, but they assured the writer (afterwards) that they didn't think it right to catch the dear little things anyway. Two well organized gangs of scrub were played during the day, the record of which Editor Fuller and his entire family made their debut. Ex-Editor Lord, who was one of the guests of honor, made several distinguished plays at first base.

Dinner and supper were marvels of what can be accomplished when The C. G. force leaves its cases and desks to take up the culinary art. Chowder that had in it real fish and real bones, salads that were the product of the latest edition cook book, pies of wondrous mechanism but brief endurance, raspberry tarts, cold meats, coffee, lemonade and ball a score of other things went to make up the bill of fare. John's lemon pie was "well worth the price of admission," but John sacrificed his desires and saw it go out of existence, quicker than a free silver organ, at the head of the table. Ice cream was added to the menu at supper and fulfilled a grateful mission. The watermelons which were taken to Oakland with infinite labor did not get so far as the rest.

The camera bands were present in their glory and the picnicers massed themselves on the piazza while several views were taken by Allie Jones and the Lubrop-Kallock combination. Elegantly finished copies of these photographs are shortly to be on sale and a file copy will also be saved—for the curio collection.

The fishing, baseball and dinner table exploits of F. A. Winslow combined one of the most extraordinary summer exhibits that the present season has yet given to the public. To see the girls at the table watching Mr. Winslow's motions, and then bringing on fresh baskets and shaking their heads doubtfully was a pathetic sight.

Did space afford the opportunity we would like to give an account in full of the picnic, its bays and mishaps. Suffice to say that every hour of the outing was enjoyed to the utmost, and already the girls in the back office are planning what they will do next year. There were between 40 and 50 in the party and here is the list as complete as it could afterwards be made:

W. O. Fuller, Jr., and family, Mrs. J. B. Porter, A. H. Jones and son Albert, J. W. Thibault, F. A. Winslow, Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Lord, W. S. Keene, Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Orleton, Miss Grace Orleton, Mrs. Jos. Lynn, Misses Annie Emerson, Katie Emerson, Rose McNamara, Annie Mullin, Imogene Parker, Helen Kallach, Edna Aab, Clara Thibault, Edw. Lord, Herbert Lubrop, Miss Edw. Cox, Misses Augusta Sherman, Mary Barker, Laura Rhoades, Fide Rhoades, Millie Simons, Mrs. Carrie Rhoades, Will Whitely, Miss Grace Hans, Mrs. Annie Morton, Miss Helen York, Miss Lizzie Cobb, J. W. Walker, Miss Lizzie Morey, Miss Sue Perry, C. W. Hills and Manoug Pilegias.

This is a composite report, written by all hands, but it has the merit of frankness and truth.

Woods and Maine are doing some tall batting for Springfield as well as some No. 1 pitching. Springfield seems about to verify the prediction of this paper that it would be in first place before the season closed. Both Syracuse and Springfield had passed Buffalo Wednesday.

BUCKSPORT'S SEMINARY

President Hutchinson's Selection As President An Exceedingly Happy One.

The East Maine Conference Seminary at Bucksport will open its doors for the Fall term and school year on Monday, Aug. 30. The outlook for the future is very encouraging to the trustees and friends of the institution and although the resignation of Prof. A. F. Chase was a matter of the deepest regret, the selection of the president-elect gives every promise of being a most happy choice.

At the regular meeting of the trustees the first of July a long list of candidates were presented for the vacant office at the head of the school. After a session of many hours it was finally voted to leave the matter to a committee of three, who at a later meeting in Boston unanimously elected Prof. W. A. Hutchinson of Pennington Seminary, New Jersey. The action of the committee was formally confirmed at a special meeting of the trustees held at Grace church vestry in Bangor, Thursday afternoon.

Prof. Hutchinson is thirty-three years of age and a native of New Jersey. He is a graduate of Dickinson college and has the degree of A. M. from his alma-mater. He did one year of post graduate work at Chicago University and also took a short course at Harvard. He began his teaching in the public schools and has been four years at Pennington being assistant vice-principal for three years.

Dr. Houlton the president of the institution for twenty years endorses Prof. Hutchinson as the best all round man he ever had under him and regards him as an exceptionally fine disciplinarian.

President George E. Reed of Dickinson College in his endorsement of the candidate regards him as a person of high character and one of the finest young men ever turned out by that college. He is also recommended by Dr. Chas. H. Payne, Dr. Morris W. Prince, President Harper of Chicago University and many others.

He has charge of the normal department of the Sunday school and Chautauque Assembly at Ocean Grove, N. J., now in session, and is a most assiduous worker in his line and also in the educational department of the Epworth League.

Mrs. Hutchinson is the daughter of Rev. R. B. Loomis, Ph. D. of Troy, N. Y., and is a graduate of Mt. Holyoke College and Syracuse University completing her studies with several post-graduate courses which with extensive travel in Europe has given her a broad education and culture. She has taught at Fort Edward Institute, N. Y., and at Pennington. Mrs. Hutchinson is an artist of recognized ability and with her husband takes much interest in Epworth League work, especially in the Junior department. Prof. and Mrs. Hutchinson will arrive at Bucksport about Aug. 1. The trustees count themselves highly favored, also, that they are able to retain the services of Amanda Wilson of Bangor as principal and also of Prof. Fred C. Ball as head of the commercial department in which line he has but few equals in the country. Two new teachers, Prof. Archie S. Hartman, Bowdoin '97 and Miss Marion P. Stover, Wellesley '95, are new acquisitions and bring to their respective departments modern and up-to-date methods and considerable experience as teachers. In the music department, Miss Ada M. Fernald returns from a year's studies with eminent teachers.

A complete new equipment of modern rifles and accessories has been purchased for the school by the state and instruction in military tactics will be resumed in charge of the veteran and unequalled drill master Lieut. Col. S. P. LaGros. Dr. Horace E. Snow, a prominent Bucksport physician, has been elected the Junior department. Prof. and Mrs. Hutchinson will arrive at Bucksport about Aug. 1. The trustees count themselves highly favored, also, that they are able to retain the services of Amanda Wilson of Bangor as principal and also of Prof. Fred C. Ball as head of the commercial department in which line he has but few equals in the country.

During vacation a general renovation will take place in and about the buildings under the direction of the steward, Russ Mitchell, and the school will be ready to take on new life as it were.

The financial condition is healthy and the plans for the future as outlined by the trustees will keep the institution on a safe and possibly paying basis.

The school offers every advantage to students of limited means and expenses may be made surprisingly low, if necessary. The curriculum is arranged with the utmost care and graduates earn their diplomas only by faithful and thorough work.

You may hunt the world over and you will not find another medicine equal to Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy for bowel complaints. It is pleasant, safe and reliable. For sale by H. L. Robbins, Union, D. B. Cobb & Son, Searsmont, and Warren Pharmacy.

Why Not Meet in Rockland?

The executive committee of the State Grange will meet in August to decide where the annual session will be held. A meeting is to be elected at the meeting in December. Hon. Edwin Wiggin, having had two terms, says he shall not be a candidate for re-election, which leaves Overseer J. A. Robbins of Norway prominent in the field for the position. We do not understand that Rockland has ever entertained the State Grange. Why not this year?

In an endeavor to reach the bedside of his dying brother at San Mateo, Cal., W. H. Crocker broke the record between Ogden and San Francisco. The distance of 833 miles was covered by his special train in twenty-three hours and twenty-two minutes.

True's Pin Worm Elixir, Famous for nearly a half century, still maintains its high reputation as a remedy of great efficacy and sterling merit; corroborative of this comes the report that within the last three months Dr. J. P. True & Co., Auburn, Me., have found it necessary to prepare 25,000 bottles of this good old remedy.

Whose Clot has are You Wearing?

EDWIN LIBBY POST'S CANNON

When the schooner Addie Schifer, Capt. F. E. Aylward, arrives in port in a few days she will have on board a couple of howitzers with shells, which are to ornament the lawn west of the Grand Army Hall on Limerock and Union streets. The following letter explains itself:

Hon. Nelson Dingley, Jr., House of Representatives, Washington, D. C.—Sir: In compliance with your recommendation of the 5th instant, on papers in the case, I have the honor to inform you that the commanding officer of the New York Arsenal, Governor's Island, N. Y., has this day been instructed to issue to Gen. J. P. Cilley, Commander of Edwin Libby Post, No. 16, G. A. R., Rockland, Me., two 8-inch howitzers and forty 10-inch shells, under act of May 22, 1896. The commanding officer of the arsenal has also been instructed to communicate with Gen. Cilley relative to payment of transportation charges, etc. Respectfully,

D. W. FLAGLER, Brig. Gen. Chief of Ordnance.

Chris. Toole's Ambitious Scheme.

The horse race by electric light, for which Chris Toole, the Bangor sportsman, was trying to arrange seems to have fallen through. The race was to have been open to horse companies of eastern Maine and would have brought together the Senators of Ellsworth, state champions, and the speedy Orioles of Bar Harbor, who won their honor this year at the Fourth of July races. The Senators were getting in shape for practice, but nothing further being heard of the race, they have stopped training. They will soon begin practice for the muster at the New England fair, Kigby.

The Thirty-fourth Annual New England Fair, to be held at Portland during the week beginning August 16, promises to be by far the biggest exhibition ever given by the Society. $30,000 are offered in premiums, the entries are open to the world, and the list of attractions is larger and finer and contains more in the way of novelty than any yet presented. Portland is preparing to entertain a hundred thousand people.

TIME TO STOP

A thing which entertained the passengers on a B. & A. train southbound, the other day, was a glaring sign, hung to the rear of a seat in one of the day coaches and reading: "We're Just Married." A young man and a young woman, both somewhat rosy and worried in looks, occupied the seat. They were just wed and were the victims of another one of those silly aggregations of hairbrained youths and maidens who thought it very amusing to make exhibitions of themselves at the home station and to arrange a thoroughly uncomfortable beginning for the wedding journey of the happy pair. A almost time for the death of this strangely senseless practice. If there is any time in life when people should be allowed an untroubled and agreeable way of their own, that time is on the day of their wedding journey, a thing which comes to most but once. It is only the unlearned and the ill-bred that this bridal notoriety is anything but a painful and intolerable nuisance.—Lin O. Type in Bangor Commercial.

A Lincoln County Case.

A decision has been received from the Law Court in an important Lincoln county case arising over the taxation of the estate of the late Gen. Samuel J. Bridge of Dresden. The assessors who had already in April, 1894, assessed the estate at $8,800 levied a supplemental tax upon $359,503.04, being the full amount of the inventory less the $8,800 assessed the previous April, and made the assessment against "Samuel J. Bridge, estate of," making a tax of $78,369.83, nearly equal to the entire tax of the town for the year. The executor declined to pay. The case was reported to the law court in April, 1896, and a decision has just been rendered in favor of the defendant on the ground that in April the assessors had estimated the value of the personal estate, as a whole. They could not afterward enlarge that estimate under form of a supplemental assessment. They had omitted nothing in April; they then taxed the personal estate; they attempted to re-tax it in November; they had no legal authority to do so. The supplemental assessment was not authorized by law. The supplemental tax was assessed to "Samuel J. Bridge, estate of." The tax provided that "the personal property of deceased persons in the hands of their executors or administrators not distributed, shall be assessed to the executors or administrators," and renders them personally liable for the tax; and not against the property of the deceased in his hands, as in this suit. This tax was not assessed against the defendant and he is not liable therefor.

Fifty Years Ago.

This is the way it was to look when grandfather had his "pictor took." These were the shadows cast before the coming of Conjurser Daguerre. And his art; like a girl in a pinafore some day to bloom to a goddess fair. Men certainly were not as black, we know. As they pictured them, 50 years ago.

Ayer's Sarsaparilla began to make new men, just as the new pictures of men began to be made. Thousands of people fronted the camera with skins made clean from blotch and blemish, because they had purified the blood with Ayer's Sarsaparilla. It is as powerful now as then. Its record proves it. Others imitate the remedy; they can't imitate the record.

50 Years of Cures.

The trial of a woman on the charge of railing and hawling is happily rare occurrence in Maine, but such an one came off at Belfast, this week. The woman was accused of berating her neighbors in a loud and angry voice on several occasions and at last taking her stand opposite a veranda where several people were sitting and hurling invectives and insults at one of the women there for a quarter of an hour or more. At last patience gave out and she was haled before a justice where several neighbors testified against her and she was sentenced to 30 days in the house of correction from which she appealed and furnished $100 bail.

A Bath girl who has just returned from the Christian Endeavor convention in California, tells the Independent that the minute she announced that she came from Maine, two people grasped her by the hands and two more around the waist, and when they left her she was loaded down with beautiful flowers which had been picked expressly for the pilgrims from the East. To be from Maine is recommendation enough in some places.

Her place at the Herald office is being supplied by Miss Winifred Hanley. Miss Aubine Lermond has returned from a visit to Foxboro. Bernice and Kenneth Watts accompanied her.

The Baptist Sunday school and friends to the number of one hundred and seventy had an outing at Cutting's, Wednesday. The day was so cool that even the bicyclists did not scorch. Ball playing, boating, racing and jumping, not to mention the eating, made the time pass swiftly. Young and old entered heartily into the sport. The most novel sport was the egg race in which a dozen or more took part. Of the ladies Mrs. W. A. Newcombe won, and of the gentlemen Fred W. Newcombe. In the running jump W. B. Foster proved to be the best man, covering nineteen feet. In pole vaulting the honors were easy between Allan McFarland and F. W. Newcombe. This outing, like the three previous ones, was marked by one accident. A young lad fell overboard from the wharf, but was up and rescued.

Beware of Ostentatious for Carters that contain Mercury.

There is more catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease, and prescribed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Science has proven catarrh to be a constitutional disease, and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is the only constitutional cure on the market. It is taken internally in doses from 10 drops to a teaspoonful. It acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. They offer one hundred dollars for any case it fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials.

The True Remedy.

W. M. Keane, editor Tiskilwa, Ill., "Chief," says: "We won't keep house without Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds. Experienced with many others, but never got the true remedy until we used Dr. King's New Discovery. No other remedy can take its place in our home, as in it we have a certain and sure cure for Coughs, Colds, Whooping Cough, etc. It is able to expel every other remedy, even if they are urged on you as just as good as Dr. King's New Discovery. They are not as good, because this remedy has a record of cures and besides is guaranteed. It never fails to satisfy. Try bottles free at W. H. Kitteridge's Drug Store."

HOW TO FIND OUT.

Fill a bottle or common glass with urine and let it stand twenty-four hours; a sediment or settling indicates an unhealthy condition of the kidneys. When urine stains linen it is evidence of kidney trouble. Too frequent desire to urinate or pain in the back, is also convincing proof that the kidneys and bladder are out of order.

WHAT TO DO.

There is comfort in the knowledge an often expressed, that Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-root, the great kidney remedy, relieves every wish in relieving pain in the back, kidneys, liver, bladder and every part of the urinary passages. It corrects inability to hold urine and scaling pain in passing it, or had effects following use of liquor, wine or beer and overcomes that unpleasant necessity of being compelled to get up many times during the night to urinate. The mild and the extraordinary effect of Swamp-root is soon realized. It stands the highest for its wonderful cures of the most distressing cases. If you need a medicine you should have the best. Sold by druggists, price fifty cents and one dollar. You may have a sample bottle and pamphlet both sent free by mail. Mention The Courier-Gazette and send your address to Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y. The proprietors of this paper guarantee the genuineness of this offer.

The following prices are given as samples: Breakfast, 20 cents; dinner, 30 cents; supper, 15 cents; beer, 20 cents; hay, 25 cents an hour; fresh air, 10 cents a day; berries, 5 cents a quart; cream, 12 cents a quart. At the end of every day the visitor is expected to present his card and have it punched to the value of what he has had, and when he has used up the $25 upon the card he must go away and not come back again until he has returned the courtesy and filled out his card to the value of the sum he has had. Through his commutation tickets more than a week ago, none of his kindred have written to engage rooms and Brown hopes to find time this summer to camp out two nights on the blue-berry plains.

WITH THE WHEELMEN

Great Preparations Being Made For Big Meet in this City Next Month.

The track record should be broken at the meet in this city August 10. The medal to be given to L. A. Cobb, local consul, in the man who will win this is a beauty and can now be seen on exhibition at J. F. Gregory & Son's store. The medal is in itself worth competing for, as it comes the man who wins it will likewise secure it at prize in the event in which the record is made.

The wheelmen who belong to the Central Club appreciate the privilege which has lately been granted them of leaving their bicycles on the piazza, where racks to receive them have also been set up.

The Press Cycling Club of Boston, which intends to visit Rockland next month, has made other arrangements.

TIRES THAT LEAK.

The Morgan & Wright single-tube quick-repair tire must be regarded as a distinct improvement in bicycle tire construction. It has the following advantages:

While punctures in it can be repaired with plugs, or semi-liquid injections, as well as in any other single-tube tire, it can be permanently repaired by using the quick-repair strip inside the tire. See cut No. 1.

No. 1.

By injecting M. & W. quick-repair cement through the puncture, and then pressing down on the tire with the thumb, as in cut No. 2, the repair strip inside is picked up by the cement, thus closing the puncture, as in cut No. 3.

No. 2.

No. 3.

The Morgan & Wright single-tube quick-repair tire is guaranteed non-porous. This is on account of the way in which it is made. Nearly every rider has heard of tires that "leak like a sieve."

Many tires rot, because water gets into the fabric between the two layers of rubber. The Morgan & Wright fabric is proof against moisture.

Everybody knows how comfortable Morgan & Wright tires are, and yet how seldom they puncture. This is due to the fabric.

Ask any bicycle dealer whether other tires last as long as Morgan & Wright tires. Ask, also, what the Morgan & Wright guarantee means. Morgan & Wright tires are repaired free of charge, at the factory in Chicago or at any of the Morgan & Wright free repair shops, located in the principal cities.

N. B.—When you have a puncture, get right off. Riding a tire flat, when it has a tack or nail in it, may damage it considerably.
